OJCS # 1795/5

Subject: Draft of Government-wide Systems of Personnel Records
Required for Publication in the Federal Register

Date: JUL 2 1975

In Reply Refer To:

From: G. D. Bearden, Chairman
Steering Committee for Protection of Privacy and Freedom of Information

Your Reference:

To: Bureau Directors, Regional Directors, Heads of Staff
Offices and Area Managers

In our proposed regulations to amend 5 CFR to implement the Privacy Act of 1974 (which was sent to you for comment on May 23, 1975), we indicated in section 293.103(b) that the Commission would assume responsibility for publishing annually in the Federal Register a notice of all systems of personnel records it requires agencies to maintain. Attached for your information, review, and comment are copies of draft notices of the Government-wide systems of personnel records that we will submit for publication in the Federal Register in late July. Although these draft notices were prepared from the information you provided, you are invited to provide comments, particularly on the category of records and routine uses, by July 25, 1975.

The draft notices of systems of records that the Commission will publish as an agency are currently being prepared. They will be sent to you at a later date.

Subject: Draft of Government-wide Systems of Personnel Records
Required for Publication in the Federal Register

From: Bernard Rosen
Executive Director

To: Directors of Personnel and Members
IAG Committee on FPMIS

In our proposed initial regulations to amend 5 CFR to implement the Privacy Act of 1974 (which was sent to you for comment on May 23, 1975), we indicated in section 293.103 (b) that the Civil Service Commission would assume responsibility for publishing annually in the Federal Register a notice of all systems of personnel records it requires agencies to maintain. Attached for your review, comment, and information is a list of the Government-wide systems of personnel records which the Commission will submit for publication in the Federal Register in early July. You will note that we have developed each system of records in the draft format provided by the Office of the Federal Register. We would appreciate your comments and suggestions, particularly on the category of records and routine uses, by July 25, 1975. Your comments and suggestions should be sent to the Director, Bureau of Manpower Information Systems, (BMIS), U. S. Civil Service Commission, 1900 E Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20415. Questions may be referred to Dr. Philip A. D. Schneider, Associate Director for Manpower Information, BMIS (phone: 632-6808).

Several agencies have requested that the Commission hold a meeting to discuss problems and matters relating to the Privacy Act of 1974. Accordingly, we have scheduled a meeting of the IAG Committee on Federal Personnel Management Information Systems for August 7, 1975, at 9:30 a.m., in room 1304, U. S. Civil Service Commission, 1900 E Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. In addition to a general discussion about problems and matters relating to the Privacy Act of 1974, this meeting will offer an opportunity to your representative to discuss the written comments submitted to the Commission by July 25, 1975.

DRAFT

UNITED STATES CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

DRAFT NOTICES

OF

GOVERNMENT-WIDE SYSTEMS OF PERSONNEL RECORDS

JUNE 25, 1975

SYSTEM NAME:

CSC--Appeals, Grievances and Complaints Records

LOCATION:

U.S. Civil Commission, 1900 E Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20415, regional offices of the Civil Service Commission as indicated below, agency personnel offices, and the National Personnel Records Center, St. Louis, MO.

CATEGORY OF INDIVIDUAL

Applicants for Federal employment, current and former Federal employees, agencies, and annuitants who appeal a determination made by an official of an agency or the Civil Service Commission to the Civil Service Commission, a Board established to adjudicate appeals, or an agency.

CATEGORY OF RECORD:

This system of records contains information or documents relating to a decision or determination made by an agency or the Commission affecting an individual. The records consist of the initial appeal or complaint, letters or notices to the individual, record of hearings when conducted, materials placed into the record to support the decision or determination, affidavits or statements, testimonies of witnesses, investigative reports, instructions to an agency about action to be taken to comply with decisions, and related correspondence, opinions and recommendations.

AUTHORITY:

Title 5, U.S.C., Sections 1302, 3301, 3302, 4308, 5115, 5338, 5351, 5388, 7151, 7154, 7301, 7512, 7701, 8347, Executive Order 9830, 10577, 10987, 11222, 11478, 11491, and P. L. 93-259.

ROUTINE USES:

These records and information in the records may be used:

- a. To respond to a request from a Member of Congress regarding the status of an appeal, complaint or grievance.
- b. To provide information to the public on the decision of an appeal, complaint, or grievance required by the Freedom of Information Act.
- c. To respond to a court subpoena and or refer to a district court in connection with a civil suit.
- d. To adjudicate an appeal, complaint, or grievance.
- e. As a data source for management information for production of summary descriptive statistics and analytical studies in support of the function for which the records are collected and maintained, or for related personnel management functions or manpower studies; may also be utilized to respond to general requests for statistical information (without personal identification of individuals) under the Freedom of Information Act or to locate specific individuals for personnel research or other personnel management functions.
- f. To refer, where there is an indication of a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, or local, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.
- g. To request information from a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal, or other relevant enforcement or other pertinent information, such as licenses, if necessary to obtain relevant information to an agency decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit.

- h. To provide information or disclose to a Federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the letting of a contract, or issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on that matter.

RECORD MANAGEMENT POLICY AND PRACTICE:

Storage--These records are maintained in file folders, binders, and index cards.

Retrievability--These records are indexed by the names of the individuals on whom they are maintained.

Safeguards--Access to and use of these records are limited to those persons whose official duties require such access. Personnel screening is employed to prevent unauthorized disclosure.

Retention and Disposal--The records are maintained up to two years and are transferred to the National Personnel Records Center, St. Louis, Missouri. They are destroyed by the Federal Records Center when the records are 7 years old.

SYSTEM NAME:

Personnel Research and Test Validation Records

LOCATION:

U. S. Civil Service Commission

1900 E Street, N. W.

Washington, D. C. 20415

CATEGORY OF INDIVIDUAL:

Federal employees; applicants for Federal employment; state and local government applicants and employees.

CATEGORY OF RECORD: Category II

These records include education and employment history, test scores, responses to test items and questionnaires, interview data and ratings of supervisors regarding the individuals to whom the records pertain.

AUTHORITY:

Title 5, U. S. Code Sec. 3301, Sec. 1303

ROUTINE USES:

Data are collected on a project by project basis and are used for the construction analysis and validation of written tests; for research on personnel measurement and selection methods and techniques and research on personnel management practices such as performance evaluation or productivity. Routine use includes the exchange of personnel records between the Commission and a specific Federal agency for personnel research purposes and the use of personal identifier such as employee name to identify employees included in research studies that extend over a period of time (longitudinal studies). No personnel decisions are made in the use of these research records. Many data are collected under conditions assuring their confidentiality. This confidentiality will be protected. Personal information in this system of records is used by the personnel research staff in the Commission or the specific Federal agency involved.

These records may be also used:

1. As a data source for management information for production of summary descriptive statistics and analytical studies in support of the function for which the records are collected and maintained, or for related personnel management functions or manpower studies; may also be utilized to respond to general requests for statistical information (without personal identification of individuals) under the Freedom of Information Act or to locate specific individuals for personnel research or other personnel management functions.
2. To refer, where there is an indication of a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, state, or local charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, or rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

3. To request information from a Federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal, or other relevant enforcement or other pertinent information, such as licenses, if necessary to obtain relevant information to an agency decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.
4. To provide information or disclose to a Federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the letting of a contract, or issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on that matter.
5. For litigation in a Federal court by the Civil Service Commission or an agency.

RECORD MANAGEMENT POLICY AND PRACTICE:

Storage -- Records are maintained in file folders, on punched cards, computer tape, and computer storage.

Retrievability -- Records are maintained by project. Personal information can be retrieved by name or personal identifier only for certain research projects such as those that involve longitudinal studies. Confidential and/or protected information such as ratings and test materials will not be disclosed.

Safeguards -- Records are kepted in locked files, locked room, and access is limited to research staff.

Retention and Disposal -- Indefinite.
